EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James Bame on 7-14-09.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

In claim 3, line 1, "1" has been changed to --2--.

Claims 7-11 have been cancelled as being directed to a non-elected invention, the election having been made without traverse.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record taught or suggested the application of elastic band material and connection adhesion band material to an inflatable article which was a wrinkled band of the type recited. More specifically, the prior art of record failed to teach or suggest the adhesion of overlapped sheet material about a periphery and along an adhesion line which defined an air passage there between while additionally attaching the connecting adhesion band to the outer periphery line as recited. The reference to Japanese Patent 2000-288004 suggested a wrinkled inflatable band, however the reference did not teach or suggest the inclusion of elastic material therein or the joining of the sheet material to produce the inflatable portion of the band. The references to Carlee '587, '588,

Romano, Sebastian, and Zablotsky et al all suggested that one skilled in the art was aware of inflatable bladders and/or other inflatable devices which were useful as wrinkled bands to support one's back, however none suggested the method of making the same which included the inclusion of the elastic band in combination with the connection band and the inflatable passageways in the system as defined in the claims.
